

LiveWell Greenville champions healthy eating and active living by convening community partners to impact policy, systems, and environmental changes.

Greenville County is a founding partner and an anchor investor of LiveWell Greenville. Greenville County and Greenville County Parks, Recreation and Tourism Department have both adopted multiple policies and created environments to make healthy choices easier for employees and children.

We are all LiveWell Greenville - making the healthy choice the easy choice.

LiveWell Greenville and Greenville County Partnership Facts:

- Worksite Wellness
 - Greenville County Parks, Recreation and Tourism Department is recognized by South Carolina Hospital Association (in partnership with LiveWell) Strategy for Working Well platform as a Platinum recipient for providing resources and benefits to promote a positive work-life balance, stress management, employee morale and optimal emotional and mental well being.
- Out of School Time
 - All six community centers are recognized for built policies and environments that promote healthy eating and active living during afterschool and summer camp programs.
- Park Heroes
 - Park heroes is way to engage youth, corporate groups and other civic minded individuals and create an infrastructure that supports an environmental change.
 - Total number of events: 47
 - Total number of volunteers: 1,925
 - Total dollars saved: $57,322
- Park Hop Partner
 - Greenville County Parks, Recreation and Tourism Department, alongside 5 municipalities, is a founding partner of Park Hop. Multiple Parks and Rec departments came together to address physical activity loss and weight gain during summer months.
 - In its 6th year, Park Hop is a free scavenger hunt and opens on May 19th.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

Read our Monthly Report

SUBSCRIBE TO LIST

FORWARD EMAIL

Copyright © 2015. All Rights Reserved.